COMPANY HIGHLIGHTS

Over 55 years of combined experience in the energy industry.

Direct access to crude oil sources and global refineries.

Deep discount pricing on jet fuel, crude oil, and refined products.

Secure and reliable supply chain ensures uninterrupted deliveries.

Comprehensive logistics and transportation services tailored to customer needs.

Commitment to environmental sustainability and ethical business practices.

Commerja-X 's vision of enabling all non-oil producing Island nations of the Caribbean, Central America, South America, Africa and the Indian Sub-Continent of achieving Energy and Food security can be realized by providing the governments of these countries fuel at a substantially subsidized price, with stipulations that usage must be restricted to electrical power generation facilities. This will help reduce the rationing of electricity and water to household. The aim of this initiative is to ensure. that every child has the basic necessities to promote their success and future development while aiding the reduction of the ever-increasing number of child illiteracy globally. The marketing of Petroleum products on our platform at deeply discounted prices is made possible by offering participating Refineries and Major resellers tax reduction rebates, plus other incentives like carbon credits, from our affiliated 509 (a) non-profit, The Air 4 Life Foundation.

COMMERJA-X has strategically positioned itself to be able to provide Fuels for domestic, agricultural and industrial uses at greatly subsidized prices to enhance the quality of life for disenfranchised and under served population in these non-oil producing countries. This is achieved via an arrangement, where the paid by the refineries to Commerja-X, on each product offered for sale is directly donated to the Air 4 Life Foundation. Nations can participate in the innovative system by allocating parcels of land for the cultivation of fruit trees/cocoa/ cotton /Jack fruit/Breadfruit, and similar long-term crops that will function as carbon sequestration farms. All purchases of commodities via Commerja-X 's platform directly supports humanity's quest for a balance between sustainability in the production and Consumption of our energy reserves ,while simultaneously combating global warming and achieving the realization of our vision of energy and food security globally.
